A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Last week we held our Cross Country Carnival in what started with wet weather then turned into a lovely day. Thank you to everyone involved for making the day very successful. Special mention of Mr Bailey and Mrs Jeffery for their hard work. The Inter School Cross Country Team has been selected and will travel to Eneabba in week 2 of next term.

Thank you to the students and families who gave Red Apples to the grown ups who work and volunteer in our school.

Congratulations to Mrs Alieca Wallace who is our new Home Economics Assistant. Thank you to Mrs Jenkins for her many years of dedication in Home Ec. Mrs Jenkins remains working in our school delivering the Hospitality Cert II and as our Horticulture Technician.

We say thank you and farewell to Mr Rawlins who is moving to Kununurra. Ms Christine Edgar will be our English Teacher commencing next term.

Semester 2 Student Achievement Reports will be sent home via email on 30th June. Students will bring home House Point and Attendance Certificates. I encourage parents to follow up on interview requests.

This week our school was emersed in NAIDOC Celebrations. Thank you to Mrs James, Mrs Millett and Mrs Stephen for their work coordinating many events. Thank you to everyone involved in this wonderful week and clearly demonstrating our school wide expectation of Respect. Please look at our school Facebook and Intsa pages for lots of great photos.

Thank you to over 100 parents and students who attend our 2024 year 7-10 Curriculum Information Evening.

Our long serving and dedicated Manager Corporate Services, Mrs Robyn Patten had retired. Mrs Patten has been working at Dongara DHS for 28 years. We thank Mrs Patten for her service to our school and wish her all the very best in her retirement. Our staff held a special morning tea to say farewell.

I wish all of our students, their families and staff a happy and safe Term 2 holiday. A reminder that Term 3 starts Tuesday 18 July for our students.

Kind Regards
